NATURE'S INSPIRATION

UP TO THE LIGHT

Hold anything dark up to the light and let it illuminate a new perspective: things never before seen, sentiments not before felt, truths prior undiscovered.

A NATURE PRESENCE PRACTICE:

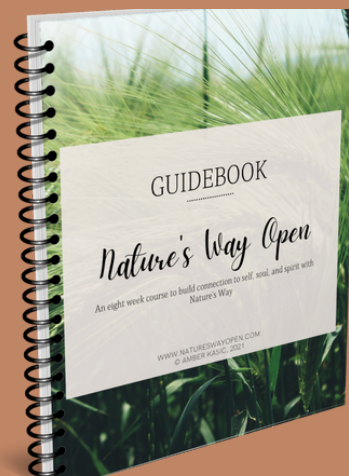

When enjoying fall walks, hold leaves up to the light and notice what can only be seen with the light. Now how is this also true for you? What beauty (inner or outer) would you or others notice if you were to shine your light?

A MONTHLY MESSAGE FROM A LOVED ONE IN SPIRIT: Moving from Grief to Gratitude

During a recent mediumship connection, a husband showed me today was their wedding anniversary. He even picked out his wife a card. His message to help her move forward was:

"Replace your thoughts of sadness with gratitude for my continued presence as I am here! Every time you feel a moment of fullness in love, joy, appreciation - thank me for enjoying it with you!"

WHAT'S NEW IN MEDIUMSHIP?

Why do I call them mediumship connections instead of readings?

When you seek out mediumship to experience your loved ones in the afterlife, I am not just "reading" you or the space. I actually FEEL your loved one. They help me feel, in my physical body, their personality, often their illnesses, and more. I am experiencing in a tangible way, the energy of their essence which is still very much ALIVE! More importantly, a connection provides you with important messages from your loved one that bring you the joy, healing, love, apologies and support needed by you.

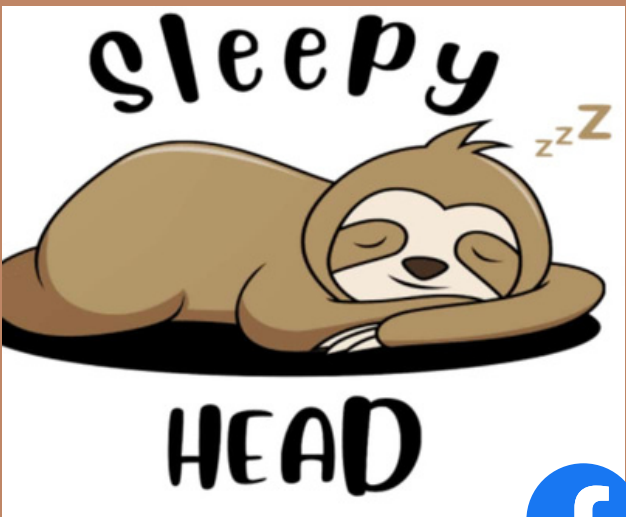

I wasn't always an evidential medium, so what happened?

At the fall 2023 International Association of Near Death Studies Conference in Washington D.C., I was so grateful to be able to explain how I became a medium with what began as a spiritually transformative experience (a "shared death" experience) during my father's passing.

You can hear this story too via the video on the right. While the video quality isn't what I had hoped, the audio is great and I have edited the video for your viewing so that you may see the images, evidence, and story come to life with images, pictures, and text stories.

Your Monthly Story of Signs and Synchronicity

Waking up extremely late one morning, I rushed to the bathroom my eyes still half closed, thinking of all the shortcuts I was going to make to my morning routine. While busy making my list, I hear my dad's voice peak through my own thoughts and he says, "Wake up sleepy head!" I haven't heard my dad call me that since I was a child, and in fact, I didn't even remember it until this moment, hearing his voice in my mind.
